

Crystal Clear Career Declarations

1. I declare and decree that I will obtain a position that is designed for me and fear will no longer be my friend and hold me back from pursuing career opportunities.
2. I declare and decree that I will have options to choose the place I will be employed, and my place of employment will assist in enhancing my skills, and be financially fit for my family.
3. I declare and decree that my résumé will be the premier marketing tool for my 'YOU' brand and will open doors to employment opportunities of interest to me.
4. I declare and decree favor in all my interviews and that my 'YOU' brand will be positively memorable.
5. I declare and decree direction and the release of divine strategy in all levels in my career journey.

Crystal Clear Career Declarations

6. I declare and decree that I will be the light in any work environment I enter and exemplify Godly characteristics that will bring your people closer to you.
7. I decree and declare I will be the exception because of the favor God has over my life.
8. I declare and decree that I will thrive and not just survive in any work environment.
9. I declare and decree that I will remain humble and faithful as I elevate in my career.
10. I declare and decree supernatural breakthrough in my career journey because of the relationship I have with God and my belief that God can do anything but fail; therefore, I wait in expectation that God will move like never before throughout my career journey.